Mississippi Made - American Country

Bio

< DIGITAL EPK HERE >

Cole Decker, a singer-songwriter from Petal, Mississippi, brings a fresh and dynamic sound to the music scene. Blending the raw authenticity of traditional country with the edgy grit of southern rock, Cole's music resonates with a wide audience. It has garnered comparisons to acclaimed artists like Whiskey Myers.

Cole's musical journey began at a young age when he first sat down at the piano, later picking up a guitar during his college years. With over seven years of experience performing live, Cole has shared the stage as an opening act for notable performers, including Frank Foster, Parker McCollum, and Red Shahan. Currently based in Bozeman, Montana, Cole captivates audiences both as a solo artist and alongside his talented band.

Renowned for his introspective and unapologetically honest songwriting, Cole's forthcoming releases in the spring and summer of 2024 showcase his evolving artistry with tracks like "Starting Fires On A Dare," "Tinder Queen," and "Fifty-fifty." His 2020 EP "Can't Ruin A Bad Reputation," which features original hits including "Flippin' The Bird" and "Needles," solidifies his position as a rising talent in the music industry.

Cole Decker is a Mississippi singer-songwriter living in Montana with a unique blend of writing and singing styles. His fusion of traditional country and southern rock has drawn comparisons to artists like Chris Stapleton, Whiskey Myers, and 49 Winchester.

Starting with the piano at a young age, Cole later picked up the guitar in college. He has played live shows for around six years and has been an opening act for performers like Frank Foster, Parker McCollum, and Red Shahan. Now based in Bozeman, Montana, he performs both as a solo act and with his band around the area.

Known for his honest and gritty writing style, Cole's new album, "Starting Fires On A Dare," features all original tracks like "Fifty-fifty" and "Nothing But A Plan." He considers this album a profoundly personal collection of songs ranging from heartbreaks and homelessness to dating apps and remembering his childhood.

GEAR BREAKDOWN

We use Bose mains and run a Soundcraft UI 24 mixer. I have a Shure wireless system for my guitars, and I ordered some custom Rattlesnake cables to set it
